

What do we want every child at Heathfield to have the chance to do?

design and make own product design and make own recipe learn about and develop fitness routines represent the school

Undertake leadership roles develop first aid skills learn how to read a map sing with others

see / take part in an orchestra to learn how to be healthy and happy

To become responsible global citizens

To be able to articulate their views handle and interpret objects from the past learn about world history and culture communicate with young people in other countries explore cultures from other countries develop their moral compass create art works

attend an art exhibition perform in front of other people watch other people perform see a pantomime

read about gender identity read about LGBT

read about race

read about class

Learn a Musical Instrument

Compose their own Music

Perform as part of a Band

Sing a range of Songs from different Styles to consider their own and others worldviews

To grapple with philosophical, ethical and moral dilemmas have access to thousands of books in a library develop their independence be connected to email , teams, the network and one drive develop an awareness of esafety discuss and use strategies for good mental health spend the night away from home

Look at the stars in a 'clear skies' area visitor National Park have access to and the chance to become a prefect or mentor